

Clement To Speak For Dedication, Student Assembly

Frank G. Clement, governor of Tennessee, and Dr. Andrew D. Holt, president of The University of Tennessee, will be on campus March 11 to officially name and dedicate Clement Hall. Governor Clement will also speak at a student assembly and attend a special luncheon.

The dedication service will begin at 10 a.m. with Wayne Fisher, trustee of The University of Tennessee, presiding. Dr. Holt will introduce the Governor.

Also participating in the dedication service will be Dr. Paul Meek, Chancellor of the Martin Branch; Mrs. Johnnie Stout, instructor in music; Miss Lina Wells, president of Clement Hall and Peggy Childress, devotional chairman of Clement Hall.

An assembly program for the student body will follow the dedication at 11 a.m. It will be held in the New Physical Education Building.

James C. Henson, chairman of the assemblies committee, will preside. Larry Bates, president of the Student Government, will introduce Governor Clement, who will be the principal speaker.

Others on the assembly program include: Dr. Holt; the Choralairs, directed by Mrs. Johnnie Stout; Rev. James M. Moore, pastor of Central Baptist Church; Mr. Tom Elam, trustee of The University of Tennessee, and James Henson.

Variety Of Acts Presented In Show

BY JIMMY CULVER

The carnival spirit prevailed Tuesday night as the UTMB tumblers presented "Center Ring Fling".

The Freshman men's tumbling classes preformed basic tumbling stunts including such skills as fish-flop, kick-ups, head stand, and fore arm stand. The human pyramids were unique, especially the ladder pyramid which used both men and women.

A four inch beam 48 inches in the air is not easy to walk on, and you can imagine how hard it would be to preform ballerina acts on one, but Carrol Schrader and Ann Carol McCaleb made it seem like child's play.

"Campus Cops" usually aren't funny but Donnie Cox dressed as a "Campus Cop" drinking Tennessee spirits with Ruth McDaniel and "Weasle" Williams dressed as gory characters proved to be hilarious.

If you think jumping rope is for children, you should have witnessed the "Jumping Jack and Jill's in action."

The women acrobats preformed stunts in pairs. Many of these stunts required precision in timing and balance.

The men's tumbling team preformed on the mats and also on the mini-tramp.

Between tumbling acts, the Carnicus dancers were presented. They danced three numbers, a Russian Waltz, a square dance, and the grand finale.

Especially for those who enjoy modern dance, Cathy Rudd and Nancy Snow presented the impression from "Exodus."

The highlight of the night was the introduction of the king and queen. King Dennis Cavin and Queen Judith preformed individually and then together. Their act was one of skill, balance, and precision timing.

Lilli, portrayed by Kathy Brown, converses with "friends" in Vanguard's musical, CARNIVAL.

NEW PARKING REGULATIONS EFFECTIVE

Over 2100 Autos Registered For Operation On Campus

More than 1800 student cars and 300 staff vehicles are registered for operation the campus. The tremendous growth of vehicular population makes necessary some control and restriction on movement and parking of cars on campus. No traffic safety and parking control plan can work well unless the vehicles are registered, therefore it is very important that all vehicles operated on campus are registered with the Business Office and the registration sticker displayed properly on the car.

Approximately 100 tickets for failure to register students cars are on file in the Business Office. These tickets may be cleared by paying $1.00 and registering the car before March 1st. After March 1st, all tickets will be assessed and fines collected according to the schedule outlined below:

1.) First three (3) tickets for traffic or parking violation during the school year, paid within 48 hours, $1.00 each; fourth, fifth, etc. ticket during school year, paid within 48 hours, $2.00. If it becomes necessary for the Business Office to send notices concerning clearing the tickets, not paid within 48 hours, and additional charge of $1.00 will be made.

2.) Tickets for failure to register of display registration sticker on cars operated on campus, as outlined on pages 44 and 45 of the STUDENT HANDBOOK, will be $3.00. If the ticket for failure to register is not paid within 48 hours, and it becomes necessary for the Business Office to write the County Court Clerk to identify the owner and operator of the car by means of state license number and then notify the driver, an additional $2.00 charge will be assessed.

Cars must be registered with the Business Office during registration, and the registration sticker must be displayed on the lower corner of the windshield within 24 hours after being obtained. Cars brought on campus during the quarter must be registered within 48 hours.

The Business Office makes every effort to clear all traffic and parking tickets on a quarterly basis. Students may not be permitted to register for any subsequent quarter until tickets have been cleared. Spring Quarter grades may be withheld until tickets issued during Spring Quarter are cleared with the Business Office.

The money realized from fines after the expenses of operation and enforcement have been paid will be given to the Social Committee for student recreation programs. Recent payment to the Social Committee amounted to $247.00.

Bates, Leinecke Attend SG Meeting

Larry Bates, president of the Student Government, and Jerry Leinecke, secretary of finance of SG, attended a meeting of the Tennessee delegates for the Southern Universities Student Government Association Saturday.

The meeting was held at Middle Tennessee State University at Murfreesboro.

Bill Baskin, Tennessee SUSGA Chairman and MTSU student, declared the purpose of the conference to be a general meeting to unify Tennessee delegates for their annual all-southern convention this spring. "We want all Tennessee schools to know what each Tennessee school is doing in student government and their various delegates when we meet with the other states," Baskin said.

The president of each student body gave a summary of the year's activities and brought out problems on each respective campus.

Later in the day group discussion and joint sessions for the exchange of ideas were held.

"It was brought out generally that every campus seems to have a problem of communication and apathy," said Bates. "The purpose of the conference was to prepare the Tennessee delegation for the annual SUSGA conference to be held May 5-7 in Jacksonville, Florida."

Brown, Pratt Are Stars In Vanguard's 'Carnival'

At 8 p.m. tonight, and Friday night and Saturday night, the Vanguard Theatre will present the musical CARNIVAL, under the direction of William H. Snyder, speech professor.

The play is based on the movie LILLI, which had a two year run in New York.

"Colorama" Theme Set For All-Sing

From all reports, All-Sing 1966 should prove to be the most "colorful" thus far since the theme this year is "Musical Colorama." The date has been set at April 1.

Serving as director of All-Sing this year is Tom Gallien, a junior in pre-med. Nicky Dunningan is the assistant director and Cathy Porter serves as secretary.

Any music relating to the theme may be used and any number of songs or medleys may be sung. The minimum of actual singing will be four minutes and the maximum is six minutes. Points will be subtracted from any group that violates the time limitations.

Sororities, fraternities, dormitory groups, clubs and classes are the five major divisions. Any organization in good standing with the Student Government may participate. The choral groups may be all female, male or mixed. The maximum number of participants in any group is 20 with the minimum being nine. No person will be allowed to serve in more than one group per division and no more than two divisions. Solo parts are not allowed.

A trophy will be awarded as the first prize in each division. According to the secretary, Cathy Porter, permanent possession of a trophy is given to the group that wins first place for three consecutive times.

The groups will be judged on tone, intonation, diction, interpretation, technique, appearance and the general effect. The judges will be chosen by the All-Sing committee.

The entry deadline is midnight, March 6.

Those who have entered are: the Freshman, Sophomore and Senior classes, the Home Economics Club, A T O's, AGR's, Pi K A's, Phi Sigs, Zetas, Chi O's, AD Pi's, A O Pi's, Clement Hall, the Y Dorm, the Grenadiers, ISA, and SNEA.

All-Sing is sponsored by the Liberal Arts Club.

Choralairs Plan Three Day Tour

The Choralairs will take a 3-day singing tour of West Tennessee schools, beginning March 15.

On March 15 the group, accompanied by the director Mrs. Johnnie Stout, will begin the tour by singing at Camden Central High at Camden. Later in the day they will perform at Huntington High School, Huntington, and at Northside High School in Jackson. The last performance of the day will be at Selmer.

After spending the night at Jackson, the group will sing at Milan High School at Milan on March 16. The Choralairs will also sing at Peabody High School at Trenton and Dyersburg High School at Dyersburg.

The last performance of the tour will be made March 17 in Memphis. The group will sing at Westside High School and also at Frayser High.

It is built around an innocent country girl, Lilli, Kathy Brown, senior in secondary education, who becomes involved in the life of a second rate carnival. She finds she must choose between the glamour of magician Marco the Magnificent, Buddy Inlow, freshman in secondary education, and the sincerity of Paul, the puppeteer, who was once a famous dancer but is now crippled by a war injury. Paul is played by Ron Pratt, a senior in secondary education.

The humorous side of the show is enhanced by the flamboyant Rosalie, played by Billie Waincott, sophomore in home economics education. Other humorous parts include songs, puppet acts, and dances.

Other leading characters are Jacquet, played by Lester Nunnelee, freshman in engineering, and Schlegel played Allen Swafford, English instructor.

Tickets for the play are $1 for students and $1.25 for adults. Reservations may be made by calling 587-3121, extension 274 or 320.

Maj. Milton Killen Going To Vietnam

Major Milton S. Killen, Jr., associate professor of military science, will begin serving a 13-month tour of duty in Vietnam, beginning on July 1 of this year. He will be assigned to the Military Advisory Command and will serve as a military advisor to the Vietnamese Army.

Major Killen, an officer in the U. S. Army Ordnance Corps, was assigned to the military department on this campus in July, 1963. In addition to his military duties, he has worked with such organizations as Rotary Club, Vanguard Theatre and the Vanguard Film Society. He has served as the advisor of Pi Kappa Alpha and is a member of Alpha Psi Omega, dramatic fraternity.

When asked what accomplishment of the military department had most pleased him, he replied that it was the acquiring of the advance course of ROTC on this campus. UTMB is the only college which has added the advance course since 1956. Major Killen will be able to see the first class of the advance course receive its commissions before he leaves for his tour of Vietnam.

Major Killen also said that he was proud to be a part of this campus and the city of Martin, for the faculty, students, and people of this area had made him "feel at home"; during his three-year tour of duty here.

TOURNEY TRANSPORT VIA VSAC BUS A POSSIBILITY

If enough people want to go to the VSAC tournament in Nashville, the Student Government will sponsor a bus or buses, according to Larry Bates, president of the Student Government.

Inquiries may be directed to the Student Government Office.

Red Cross Drive Needs You

The old saying, "charity begins at home", still carries import for us today. Yet too many college students take it too literally; home is construed narrowly to mean the place where one's parents are. Hence, while on campus, most students feel that charity and service organizations have no place in their lives and should be ignored.

Yet the fact remains, there are still people all over the world who need our help. Viewed realistically, the college student can, if he wants to, take an interest in helping these people. We have the chance to show that we have not closed our minds and our pocket-books to need in the world. The annual Red Cross drive has begun on campus. Help support the Red Cross programs with contributions. The college campus is your "home-away-from-home." Show that charity can begin here.

Letter To Editor

Dear Editor,

I received the February 3, issue of your paper and the editorial was about which I feel deeply. Although I am not a student at Martin, I am planning to attend this fall.

As college students, I know you are aware of the many different attitudes toward the United States policy in Viet Nam, and of the various demonstrations which have been held at colleges throughout the nation. The most common demonstrations are ones criticizing our position in the war in Viet Nam, and I was relieved to see what stand you take.

My father is now serving with the United States Marine Corps in Viet Nam, so I can truthfully say the cost to win this war is great, and the sacrifices are many for all involved. In addition I must say that these men are fighting, suffering, and dying for a country, loved ones, and the principle of freedom, and it is our responsibility to help them in every way possible.

I wish to say thank you for the marvelous editorial, and with support like that, our victory may come sooner.

Sincerely yours,

Linda Stanley

Several Of Staff Hep Hitchhikers Get Rides; To Attend Meeting Most Highway Hoboes-Hike

BY MORGAN BROOKFIELD AND CHARLES HUGHES

Several members of the English Staff will attend the 6st Annual meeting of the Tennessee Philological Association in Jefferson City on the Carson-Newman Campus March 3-5.

Those from Martin who will be reading papers at the meeting are Mrs. Mildred Payne, Prof. Harry Harrison Kroll and Dr. Edmundo Robaina.

Mrs. Payne will read her paper on "Crime and Punishment: Ethics in Action" which is the story of a young intellectual in 19th century Russia as he attempted to transcend the human conscience. CRIME AND PUNISHMENT is the first of a series of five novels on which Fyodor Dostoevsky's fame rest. This paper is drawn from the reading of Dostoevsky's works and a study of Bruckner's HISTORY OF RUSSIAN LITERATURE and various English translations.

Prof. Kroll will read a paper on "Riders In The Night," a creative writing on the growth of tobacco interest in some southern states. This is his 24th book, a nonfiction.

Dr. Robaina's paper entitled "La prosa poetica de Amado Nevo," is a scholarly research paper on the analysis of the poetic prose style of Amado Nevo.

The society, composed of college professors interested in a study of languages will also hear some speeches which will be in French, Spanish, German and, of course, English.

Bailey Is Speaker To Business Group

Mr. William Bailey, Controller of Tennessee Farmers Co-op and a member of the Martin staff, spoke to the Alpha Kappa Psi members at their last meeting.

Bailey challenged the members to take responsible positions in management. He stressed the importance and need for capable young men who are willing to accept both the rewarding and the unrewarding consequences of responsible decision making. He stated that the demand for this type of Business Administration graduate astronomically exceeds the supply.

Trying to stop a thundering 40 foot rig, bellowing smoke out of both stacks, by lying in the middle of the highway is not the most practical method of securing a ride to your destination. Unless your destination happens to be death. If the semi-jockey is able to slow the rig before "buttering" you on asphalt, you might secure a ride--although it is usually against the law.

Getting the operator of a vehicle to stop is a tricky operation. The hitchhiker must have a highly creative mind filled with deceit. Being shift is imperative too.

STANDING with your thumb extended rarely does more than build up the triceps. This method should be deployed when in an area of trusting people or when all initiative is squandered.

Lounging leisurely on your luggage encourages the driver of the vehicle to mash is accelerator to the floor .. and pass you by.

The hitchhiker could carry a can marked "gas." But.. who the heck wants to lug a five gallon can from coast to coast. The reactions the driver might display when he discovered he had been deceived would probably be adverse. If the individual were extremely congenial, you might get a ride to the next service station.

SOME hitchhikers have resorted to the use of signs for lifts. These signs cannot say, "I want a ride," or "I need a lift," because this is apparent. Signs such as "I will exchange references" or "My ancestors are descendants of the Mayflower" will solicit better results unless the driver of the automobile happens to be an Indian.

For the fewest rides over the longest distances the truckers probably are the most obliging -- as long as the driver is able to "dub" you honest. You can introduce yourself to a rig jockey at any truck stop. If you can win his friendship, more than likely you will be able to get a ride from him or one of his roving buddies if he is unable to oblige you.

SUGGESTIONS such as these are adequate for long trips but for short trips -- ones under 30 miles--another method of obtaining a ride is more desirable. This tactic finds the thumber standing alone on the road waiting for a vehicle to ramble by. As the car approaches make rapid motions as if in recognition of the occupants. Hopefully they will think you are a local person and stop to give you a lift. Immediate entry of the car is essential before the driver has a chance to realize you aren't his long lost cousin from Buffonsville.

IF you smoke..don't let the cigarette hang out of the corner of your mouth because this will immediately repulse drivers of potential lifts. Yet if you have a cigarette between you fingers so it is noticeable to the driver of the oncoming vehicle--you might receive a ride if the driver is out of "smokes."

There are hinderances in hitchhiking too. Suppose you are offered a ride by someone who thinks he is in training for the races at Le Mans -- you would feel lucky when he eased off the accelerator and the needle dropped under 100 miles per hour.

THE possibility of being bolted along in a bucket of bolts at 70 or 80 is not a joyful thought.

College identification is useful when you are traveling because often students will willingly oblige their scholarly schoolmates.

TWENTY-FIVE years ago the driver of an automobile would stop to give a man a lift. And if the driver felt tired he would move over, go to sleep and leave the driving to the hitchhiker. Times have changed. This is an unreasonable thought today because crime rates have made drastic increases; therefore the police strictly enforce laws prohibiting hitchhiking. This is done in hopes of decreasing the possibility of crimes.

Hitchhiking as a means of transportation is on the way out.

Circle K Receives Charter At Dinner

Circle K received their charter February 21 at a banquet held in the fieldhouse.

The guest speaker was George Schauringhauser, chairman of Circle K for Kiwanis International.

It is a service organization sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Union City. There are 31 charter members who were selected by the Dean H. B. Smith, Dean of Men, vice-president Paul Meek, and Kiwanis officials.

The men's objectives include service on campus and in the community, promote high scholarship, and emphasize the American and Canadian way of life.

Officers are: David Small, president; Gene Hardy, vice-president; Bill Fron, secretary; Pat Taylor, treasurer; and Board of Directors Larry Bates, Jerry Leinecke, Don Glover and Buddy Mitchell.

David B. Kendall, assistant professor of Engineering and Graphics, is the faculty advisor.

Carney Atmosphere Present At Program Tuesday Night

BY CHARLES HUGHES

The circus came to town, or at least, it seemed so when the 31st annual Carnicus appeared in the new gym last Tuesday.

The "carney" atmosphere was present in all aspects from the acrobats to old-time refreshment stands. Even the old-time silent clowns were present and constantly spoofed the antics of the more serious acts.

Of course, some changes had been made to update the program. Instead of tight-wire walkers, the Carnies presented balance bar ballerinas. However, most changes were minor. There were even dancing girls to replace the carnival side shows.

The acrobatics ranged from the simple to the complex. Those of the advance tumbling class can be compared to some acts found at the carnival or circus. The somersaults and other stunts were the same kind of acts that are featured at the sideshows on the midway.

The clowns added to the show with their own special act, which spoofed certain characters on campus. Their act

Sorority Badminton Set For End Of Next Week

Sorority badminton intramurals will be held on Wednesday and Thursday of next week in the old gym.

Each sorority will have two each with each team composed of two women, who will play in the doubles.

The names of the entries are due in Friday.

contained all the aspects of the circus clown, from the silent antics to the slapstick comedy.

While there was not tight-wire or juggling acts, there was a rope-jumping act, which require bounce and agility.

According to the reaction of the crowd, some of the carney atmosphere will remain in memory until the midway bounds back again.

Peeples Elected Worthy Master

Recently Alpha Tau Omega fraternity elected Clayburn Peeples as Worthy Master for the next year.

Clayburn will begin his duties at the beginning of spring quarter. Clayburn is a sophomore in pre-law from South Fulton.

Other officers chosen for the next year are Worthy Chaplin, Richard Shannon; Worthy Keeper of Exchequer, Larry Beavers; Worthy Scribe, Rodney Williams; Worthy Keeper of Annals, Earl Gatlin.

Worthy User, George Yarbo; Worthy Sentinel, Jim Black; Senator, Houston Gordon; and King Tipton was chosen member-at-large.

Independents To Hold Meeting Monday Night

A meeting of the Independent Student Association will be held Monday night at 7 p.m. in room 204 of the EPS Building. The Powers Brothers will provide entertainment.

Whitesides Named Chairman Of Campus Red Cross Drive

The Red Cross Drive is currently in action in Weakley County and on this campus.

Tom Whitesides of the Busser's office has been named chairman of the campus drive by Col. Bill Snyder, chairman of the Weakley County drive.

The following have been asked to receive donations from faculty members in the designated buildings: Larry York, Administration; Bettye Giles, Women's Gym; James Henson, New Gym; Will K. Dickerson, Old Engineering; Mrs. Ida Corum, Dorms; Charles Callis, EPS; Lonnie Maness, Old Science; Mrs. Bobbye Crutchfield, Library; Mrs. Linda Waler, Music; Ed Chester, ABL; Russell Duncan, Student Activity and Cafeteria. The campus goal is 100 percent participation.

Students will be contacted

Sorority Basketball To Continue Games

By the consent of the physical education department and by vote of the Panhellenic Council, the sorority basketball tournament will continue play as scheduled.

On Monday, February 28, Alpha Omicron Pi will play Zeta Tau Alpha at 7 p.m. in the old gym. At 8 p.m., Chi Omega will play Alpha Delta Pi.

The losers and winners will play in the consolation games and finals, respectively, on Tuesday, March 1.

Mixed Shuffleboard

Deadline Set Today

Deadline for the semifinals of the mixed shuffleboard tournament is today.

The teams that have made it to the semifinals are Van Loggins and Joyce Sorrell, Robert Michael and Jane Hodges, Brad Brodie and Linda Baumgardner, Mack Moody and Teresa Ladd, Franklin Davidson and Sandra Culp, and Bill Fron and Barbara Johnson.

The finals will be held the first of next week.

Young Republicans Club Julius Hearst Will Visit

The Chairman of the University of Tennessee Young Republicans announced today that the State Republican Chairman, Julius Hurst, will be visiting the campus to speak to the group.

"Mr. Hurst will be here at the beginning of the spring quarter," he said, "Probably the last week of March."

Lambda Sigma Beta Officers Announced

Lambda Sigma Beta founding fathers are Frank Jones, Jr., freshman in engineering; Mark Smith, sophomore in education; Ronnie Yoes, sophomore in education; and Herbert Johnson, sophomore in education.

Officers are Herbert Johnson, president, Mike Waiker, freshman in Liberal Arts, vice-president; Mark Smith, secretary; and Don Simmons, Treasurer, junior in Liberal Arts.

Tat Thornhill Wins Badminton For Women

The open badminton intramurals finals have just been completed, and winners have been announced.

Tat Thornhill, a sophomore in pre-nursing from Chattanooga, is the winner.

The runner-up is Edna Massey, a sophomore in liberal arts from Memphis.

Orangemen Bag Sixth Straight Play In VSAC Tourney Today

The fireball Vols extended their winning streak to six in a row, and boosted their record to 11-6 for year by upending the 107-86 here Thursday night.

Reaching the century mark for the first time this season, the Orangemen preserved a spotless home record.

All three seniors, playing their final home game, shot in double figures and, Don High, netted the team's highest individual scoring performance of the campaign as UTMB revenge an earlier setback.

High led both quintets with 36 points with senior Moore Landers aiding with 29.

The Orangemen leaped into the lead early in the battle and never lost it. On tip by 21 with 5:52 left in the half, Vol cagers settle for a commanding 50-31 margin.

In the second stanza, the Govs moved to within 11 before the Volunteers streaked away.

With the win virtually salted away, the Vols climbed for the 100 mark. Don High's basket pulled UTMB over the magical mark 101-77 with little over five minutes left.

Despite Dennis Synder and Tommy Head's efforts of 29 and 13 respectively, the Gov-

UTMB golf coach Grover Page has announced the 1966 golf schedule. The tour will open March 26 with the VSAC tournament in Memphis May 9-10.

Qualification rounds for the six team members will be played before March 15.

The schedule is as follows:

March 26 Bethel College at McKenzie; April 9-Bethel College at McKenzie; April 14-Florence State at Florence, Ala.; April 14-Alabama College at Florence, Ala.; April 18-Lambuth College at Jackson; April 22-Union University here; April 22 - Christian Brothers College here; April 25-David Lipscomb at Nashville; April 25-Florence State at Nashville; April 30-Lambuth College here; May 2-Christian Brothers at Memphis; May 3-David Lipscomb here; May 6 Union at Jackson; May 9-VSAC Tournament at Memphis; May 10-VSAC Tournament at Memphis.

First Year Vols Drop Eighth Game

An Austin Peay basket with only six seconds left in the game handed UTMB frosh their eighth setback of the year 76-74.

The first-year Vols led 39-31 at the half, but watched their lead disintegrate before dead-eye shooting by the baby Govs.

The freshman led by as much as 11 points in the first half before succumbing to the ASPC second half onslaught.

Ron Wilcox and Joey Fulks headed the Vols with 20 markers each. Ken Sledd, John Armstrong, and Daryl Gardner followed with 16, 13, and 5 respectively.

Austin Peay's frosh placed four men in double-figures with Meabertin and Moore sharing high-point laurels for the Govs with 16 each.

nors could not keep pace with the Vol's torrid shooting percentage. Hitting 41 of 80 attempts, the Volunteers netted 51.3% from the floor.

Dominating the boards, UTMB Cagers hauled down 59 rebounds against ASPC's 51.

Austin Peay's loss dropped them to a 5-11 year record.

The Vols open their VSAC Tournament play today in the first-round of the quarter finals in Nashville. The top-seeded Orangemen received a bye in the first round of action yesterday.

Semi-finals are slated for Friday night with the championship battle posted for 7:30 p.m. Saturday night February 26.

The 19th annual tourney is being held in the Belmont College Gym.

Following the playoffs, the Volunteer quintet will round-out the year against Southeast Missouri there March, 1.

RONNIE ARMSTRONG

Senior captain Ronnie Armstrong was named to the western division All-VSAC quintet, coach Floyd Burdett has announced.

The 6'2" senior and team's leading scorer was selected to the squad by the conference coaches.

The other members Meisel of Belmont College; Jeff Richey of Union University; Mike Stander, CBC; and Larry Ferguson of Bethel College.
